Visit of Bishop Fintan

Bishop Fintan Monahan has expressed a wish to visit the parish next weekend. Since His ordination as bishop he has been taking time to familiarise himself with the geography of the diocese and in the process has celebrated Masses in quite a number of parishes. We welcome him to our parish and wish him well in his role as shepherd of the flock in the diocese of Killaloe.

Guest Speaker: Peter McCartan

Peter is a Professional qualified Senior Medical Social Worker and Registered Systemic Family Therapist.

This talk will cover:

- The complex issues grieving parents must face when they have experienced the death of their child, highlighting what is normal in this process.
- The gender differences in facing such a loss will be explored to give an understanding for both parents of their differing world-views.
- It will highlight the milestones on the journey through this unique grief and the small supports that can make the journey a little easier.
- Various types of loss, whether expected or sudden, will also be discussed to understand their impact on grieving parents, their families and the deceased child's siblings.

Engaging with Adolescents - Certificate/Diploma in Spirituality: Anybody interested in developing their skills in working with young people in the area of faith development may be interested in what the Shekinah programme has to offer. This programme is certified at Certificate (1 year) and Diploma (2 years) by St. Patrick's College, Maynooth. The certificate course has both a theoretical and practical component and consists of 10 Saturdays between October and Easter. This course which enables participants to facilitate school retreats has transferable skills to other areas of youth work. It is helpful for parents, teachers, chaplains, youth workers and anyone interested in knowing more about the cultural and developmental aspects of young people. The course can be delivered in Limerick if there is sufficient interest. For details contact Jennifer Perkins 086 8428260 John Horan 086 8439430.
