The Bunratty Tidy Towns and Local Community Association has recently been approved to participate in the LEADER Community Area Based Community Plan Programme for 2018. This externally led programme kicks off in the coming weeks and will be ongoing for the rest of 2018. Currently the Association is making good progress with the construction of a 2nd bus shelter in the village and the development of the new footpath leading to the Bunratty Graveyard. Plans are also well ahead for the summer planting of the various beds throughout the village and other ongoing development and maintenance items. New members are always very welcome and anybody interested should please contact any one of the Associations members.

Mother's Day

May the blessing of the Divine
Be an especially bright benediction
Upon mothers everywhere
On your blessed day -
On Mother's Day!
