Obairs Meals on Wheels service now extends to the parishes of Clarecastle, Quin, Sixmilebridge, Kilkishen and Cratloe as well as locally in Newmarket on Fergus. With the expansion of the service in recent years we are putting a call out for volunteers to help deliver the meals in these communities. Meals on Wheels is a vital service in any community and offers a lifeline to the elderly and those who are not in a position to cook every day. To volunteer contact (061) 368030 or call in to Cafe Fergus for a volunteer application form.

Men's Shed : Though in existence a short time the Newmarket Men's Shed is doing very well. There is plenty of creative projects underway, making bird boxes, flower boxes & doing repairs of many sorts. The Men's Shed is a very comfortable building to enjoy meeting people and having a chat over a cuppa. This weekend they will hold a church gate collection to advance their facilities. Now that the holidays are coming to an end it is hoped that more members will join. The Shed is open each Tuesday and Thursday from 10am -3pm. You can gain some insight to the movement, it's benefits to men's health and read all about what Men's Sheds around the country are doing if you look at the Irish Men's Shed website <http://menssheds.ie/>
