Centenary of the death of Bishop Edward Thomas O'Dwyer of Limerick.

Limerick Diocesan Archives and Mary Immaculate College are organising a conference on Friday 13 October to mark this occasion. Bishop O'Dwyer is best remembered for his clash with Sir John Maxwell in the wake of the 1916 Rising. Overnight his reputation was transformed from 'Castle' bishop to hero of nationalist Ireland and he died in a blaze of glory in August 1917. For the previous thirty years, he walked astride the national stage, courting controversy for his contrarian positions on everything from the Plan of Campaign, to university education and the fall of Parnell. In the context of the First World War, and perhaps less well known, are his anti-war writings which had a significant international impact. At a local level, feared if not actively disliked by many of his priests, he promoted temperance and worked to improve social conditions in Limerick, expanding educational and health facilities. On the centenary of his death, this conference, 'The World of Edward Thomas O'Dwyer of Limerick (1886-1917)' is a timely opportunity to revisit the legacy of 'our difficult bishop', as he was described by Kate O'Brien.

The conference website is available at <https://odwyer17.wordpress.com>. An Eventbrite page for registration at <https://www.eventbrite.ie/e/the-world-of-edward-thomas-odwyer-of-limerick-1886-1917-tickets-33613201992>.

All are welcome to attend this free one-day event.

If God brings you to it, He will bring you through it.

Difficult roads often lead to beautiful destinations

Even if you are on the right track, you will get run over if you just sit there

No beauty shines brighter than that of a Good Heart

Forget the mistake, Remember the lesson

Be Kind, for everyone you meet is fighting a battle you know nothing about.
