Since the 16th century Catholic piety has assigned entire months to special devotions. The month of August is traditionally dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The physical heart of Mary is venerated (and not adored as the Sacred Heart of Jesus is) because it is united to her person and is the seat of her love (especially for her divine Son), virtue, and inner life. Such devotion is an incentive to a similar love and virtue.

This devotion has received new emphasis in this century from the visions given to Lucy Dos Santos, oldest of the visionaries of Fatima, in her convent in Tuy, in Spain, in 1925 and 1926. In the visions Our Lady asked for the practice of the Five First Saturdays to help make amends for the offenses committed against her heart by the blasphemies and ingratitude of men. The practice parallels the devotion of the Nine First Fridays in honour of the Sacred Heart.

On October 31, 1942, Pope Pius XII made a solemn Act of Consecration of the Church and the whole world to the Immaculate Heart. Let us remember this devotion year-round, but particularly through the month of August.

Shannon Group's tourist experiences and attractions company, Shannon Heritage, is delighted to announce that Bunratty Castle and Folk Park will be hosting an afternoon of Traditional Irish Music, Dance and Storytelling during the August Bank Holiday weekend. Taking place on Sunday 4th August from 11.30am to 4pm the afternoon is guaranteed to get your feet tapping and hands clapping and prove the accuracy of the Christy Moore song lyric: "If it's music you want, you should go to Clare".

Many of the Bunratty Castle animators including resident musicians, actors and seanchaí, will be supported by local youth performers from Helen Hehir's School of Dance as they perform a mixture of Irish music, set dancing, step dancing, and storytelling in various locations throughout the park making it a perfect day out for the entire family.

You can even be part of the festivities yourself by performing a tune or two on the day. Bunratty Castle & Folk Park are inviting visitors on the day to bring along their musical instruments and join the resident performers in some impromptu seisiúns. Regardless of age, level or music genre this promises to be a show like no other found in Co Clare. Also, both the new Pet Farm and Fairy Trail will be open to entertain the little ones on the day.
