Irish Community Rapid Response was established in 2008 to deliver professional pre hospital care directly to the site of medical emergencies throughout Ireland. Our volunteer doctors have made a significant difference while working in association with the National Ambulance Service when responding to 999/112 emergency calls.

Building on our experience and success we will provide Ireland's first dedicated charity funded helicopter emergency medical service (HEMS). Based out of Cork Airport, Irish Community Air Ambulance will provide a vital lifesaving service, offering fast access to advanced clinical interventions at the roadside by highly trained pre-hospital emergency care medical personnel. ICAA Serves to ensure that the Right people are in the Right place at the Right time with the Right equipment and the Right skills to achieve the Right outcome. TIME SAVED = LIVES SAVED
