Community Defibrillator Newmarket on Fergus

It is with regret that the defibrillator service will be suspended from February 5th 2017. Presently there are insufficient volunteers to provide cover.

A public information meeting will be held on Wed Feb 15th. @ 8pm in Obair. Please come and help get this important service running again.

Certified training is provided for all volunteers to the Irish Heart Foundation standard.

Again a very big thank you to all those who over the years have volunteered.

We hope that this valuable service will be re launched without undue delay.

If you have any questions please contact Mary on 087 6166634
