GAA Lotto:

There was no winner of our €10,000 or €9500, numbers drawn were 1, 2, 7 & 28 and 7, 13, 24 & 31. €40 Winners; John O'Loughlin, Breda Ryan, Rosemary Foudy, Pat McMahan & Merceilla Murphy. O'Neills hosts Monday's draw where €10,000 & €9650 will be on offer. Seeing as this is a bank holiday there will be ten weekly winners. If both jackpots reach €10,000 which is a strong possibility we will then be running a monthly draw for €600, your ongoing support is greatly appreciated.

Championship:

Next weekend sees our Intermediate & Senior hurlers compete in the second round of their respective championships. On Saturday the seniors play Doora/Barefield in Sixmilebridge, a win guarantees them a place in the quarter-finals. Our Intermediate hurlers face Inagh/Kilnamona and a positive outcome would secure their status for 2018. Meanwhile our Juniors lost to Inagh/Kilnamona last Sunday and are now in a need of a win ahead of their final group game vs Parteen. Our Minor Hurlers lost out to Crusheen/Tubber in their championship opener while Sixmilebridge were far too superior for our U16s and in beating them ended their hopes of reaching the knockout stages.

Collections:

Our Scrap Metal collection is coming to a close. All items suitable for donation must be dropped off to the yard at the back of Halpin's Garage in the next fortnight. Many thanks to Jody for the use of his property for this fundraiser. Items can still be dropped through the hatch at Fr Murphy Memorial Park for our Clobber collection. Thanks to all who have supported this.

Aoife Murray, Sixmilebridge will represent Clare in the Rose of Tralee this August. A party for Aoife will be held in the GAA hall Sixmilebridge on Thursday August 10th at 8.30pm. Everyone welcome!
