God of this New Year 2026, we are walking into mystery. We face the future, not knowing what the day and months will bring to us or how we will respond. Be Love in us as we journey. May we welcome all who come our way. Deepen our faith to see all of life through your eyes. Fill us with hope and an abiding trust that you dwell in us amidst all our joys and sorrows. Thank you for the treasure of our faith life. Thank you that we can count on your gifts of Love, Grace and Mercy every day of our lives. We ask you especially this year for the Gift of Peace for those parts of our world that are suffering most because of wary, violence and random acts of terrorism. Stay with us Lord, as we head into another year.

The Irish Blood Transfusion Service is asking for blood donors to attend clinics in Shannon & Scariff, following a drop in donations over the Christmas period. Blood supplies typically fall after the festive season, but hospital demand remains constant, with patients continuing to rely on life-saving blood for cancer treatment, surgery, emergency care, and maternity services. Clinics are taking place at the:

Scariff GAA Hall Mon 5th Jan 4:50pm - 8:10pm Shannon Oakwood Hotel Wed 7th & Thur 8th Jan 4pm - 7:20pm

Phone 1800 222 111 for appointment. New Donors welcome at all clinics. Local support this week is particularly important to help rebuild stocks and protect hospital services into the New Year. Broadford based Recruitment Executive Alex O'Connor of the Irish Blood Transfusion Service said: "Every Christmas we see a gap in donations, but the need for blood in our hospitals does not pause. We are asking anyone who is able to give blood in Clare to please come forward — taking under an hour can make a real difference for patients."
