Praying during Lent

A beautiful way of encountering Jesus in the lead up to Easter this year is through Lectio Divina (a form of prayerful reading of Scriptures), meeting Jesus in the "living word" of the Lenten gospels. During the six weeks of Lent there will be a Lectio Divina session each Thursday night in the Church meeting room (Newmarket) at 7.30pm (for about an hour nightly - starting on 14th February). Everyone is welcome to join this spiritual Lenten experience, and there will be a 'Lectio Divina' booklet for all.

Killaloe Diocesan Online Surveys: Have

Your Say - For the past year the Diocese of Killaloe has been engaged in a Listening Process to hear the concerns and hopes of all in relation to the future of the Church. If you would like to make your voice heard, please consider taking our online survey. The deadline for completing the online survey is February 15th. There are two surveys available online on the Killaloe Diocesan Website, one for Young People and one for Adults. You can log on to the site at www.killaloediocese.ie

Trocaire:

Bunratty Local Development Association will be having another clean up and planting morning this Saturday 9th February at 10 am, meeting point the monument at Nellies/Creamery.

All help is appreciated and all welcome, even if it is only for an hour your help makes a difference. We would like to say a big thank you to the following for there generous help and continued support.

Flan O'Neill and Philip O'Callaghan for the use of the heavy machine, Durty Nellies for providing the lunch, and to everyone who has come along on Saturday mornings so far, and given their time so generously, thank you.

Do something special this lent! Many people choose to abstain from alcohol for the duration of Lent. Take this opportunity to help someone you love with an alcohol or drug problem by offering up your sacrifice as a prayer for their freedom and well-being. Take the Short-Term pledge and make a difference to someone's life! For more information visit www.pioneerassociation.ie or contact Raymond O'Connor (01) 874 9464
