Loving God,

we thank you for the love of the mothers you have given us,
whose love is so precious that it can never be measured,
whose patience seems to have no end.
May we see your loving hand behind them and guiding them.
We pray for those mothers,
who fear they will run out of love or time, or patience.
We ask you to bless them with your own special love.
We ask this in the name of Jesus, our brother.

Amen.

Week Four (Sunday 10.03.12)

"Honour your mother, and never abandon her all the days of your life. Do all that she wants, and give her no reason for sorrow." Tobit 4:3. On this fourth Sunday in Lent and Mother's Day, we pray for mothers all over the developing world who struggle every day to provide for their children, often going without themselves. By supporting Trócaire's Lenten campaign, you can help mothers across the world to build a better future for their children.

Liam Lawton

It is twenty years since Liam Lawton began composing and performing. Since then he has found a niche with his own brand of sacred and inspirational music, which has become repertoire for Choirs and Individuals throughout the world. He has recorded 14 collections to date with a number of them achieving Platinum status. A number of artists at home and abroad have recorded his material and his liturgical works have translated into many languages including Swedish, French, German and Irish. Liam publishes with one of the major Liturgical Publishers – GIA Music in Chicago. His music has been performed for many State occasions in Ireland and also in the UK and the USA. His work and performances have brought him to such stages as Carnegie Hall, NewYork, Chicago Symphony Hall, Annahiem Convention Centre Los Angeles, National Concert Hall Dublin, The Paul VI Auditorium at the Vatican, The White House and many of the world's sacred sites. Liam has recorded a number of TV specials and his works have been narrated by such greats as Gregory Peck, Frank Mc Court, Joan Cusack, John Malkovitch and Mick Lally of the Abbey theatre in Dublin. Liam's second book The Hope Prayer ~ a book of poetic reflections became a best seller in 2010/11 in Ireland. Recently he was one of the people invited to perform at the International Eucharistic Congress held in Dublin, singing his own compositions before a live audience of 75,000 people and a Televised audience of 200 million.

Brass Band Performance on St Patrick's Day.

St Patrick Day is the first anniversary of the Brass Band's first public performance. They have been busy preparing a number of exciting tunes to mark this anniversary and they are looking forward to performing free of charge to the public in the green after 11am Mass on St Patrick's Day. It has been an exciting year for the band, having performed at the Carnival in Newmarket-on-Fergus in August the performed twice in Kilkishen and the highlight of the year was performing for President Michael D Higgins in Ennis in September.

The annual fundraising raffle will take place after the performance on St. Patrick's Day. Tickets are on sale locally and after all masses on March 9th, 10th, 16th and 17th. This support is vital to maintain the band for the coming year.

Recently the band has ceased to be a Scout Band. They are now officially the Banna Phrais Chora Chaitlin, or The Newmarket-on-Fergus Brass Band, with the following committee, Chairman, Pat Carmody, Secretary, Fiona Duggan, Treasurer, Cathleen Enright, Committee Members, Derek Coleman, John Meehan, Jim Fitzgerald and Gerard Fahy. Andrew Jordan continues his excellent work as Musical Director.
