Camino De Santiago Coastal Camino challenge 14th -21st September 2019 A wonderful experience packed with walking and hiking trails awaits you... Coastal Camino Challenge Walking sections from Baiona to Compostela If walking is your thing then the Camino is a must! Journey with us as we follow in the footsteps of many pilgrims throughout the ages. Enjoy the rustic landscape as we trek through sleepy villages, alongside streams and blossoming trails while soaking up the culture of this unique and historic part of the world. Our participants are men and women of all ages! Their reasons for taking part come in all shapes and sizes, but the one thing everyone has in common is the desire to help families in Ireland living with dementia, whilst taking part in a unique experience.

What is included?

The 8 day trip will include 6 walking days of varying distances and elevation. You will be walking approximately four to six hours each day, but there are plenty of places along the way to enjoy a little break. The trail types consist of walking paths and trails. The trip is fully guided and guides are very knowledgeable about the culture and history of the areas you will visit during your walk so there will be much to enjoy.
