Inspired by the words of Pope Francis in Laudato Si', we are joining with Catholics worldwide, as part of the Global Catholic Climate Movement to call on our political leaders to take urgent action to prevent climate change pushing people deeper into poverty. Be part of this global movement by signing this petition now and we will deliver it to Taoiseach Enda Kenny on your behalf before they travel to Paris for the major climate negotiations there at the end of November. Please sign the petition here: <http://www.trocaire.org/takeaction/climate-justice> or alternatively you can log onto the Killaloe Diocese Justice and Peace group Facebook Page and click the link and sign from there.

UL Hospitals extends visiting times in response to patient feedback

(6th October 2015) UL Hospitals is extending its general evening visiting times from the 12th of October 2015, in response to patient feedback.

In University Hospital Limerick (UHL), Ennis Hospital, Nenagh Hospital and Croom Hospital general evening visiting times will now be from 6.00pm to 9.00pm instead of 6.30pm to 8.30pm, an extension of one hour. General daytime visiting hours will remain as before, from 2.00pm to 4.00pm.

UL Hospitals encourages the presence and participation of visitors as family and friends provide important emotional support to patients and are invaluable as members of the care team.

To help further understand patients' needs, UL Hospitals carried out a comprehensive survey. Results of the survey revealed that patients wanted extended visiting hours to make the hospital more accessible to their family and friends in the evening.

Specific wards such as the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) or the Coronary Care Unit (CCU) and others where patients are critically ill will have different visiting times and visitors should contact the main hospital reception for these times. The Children's Ark in UHL has specific visiting times to accommodate bedtime for children, as requested by families and patients, visiting times there are 2.00pm to 4.00pm and 6.00pm to 7.30pm.

In response to the wishes of new mums to have rest time with their babies, general visiting times in the University Maternity Hospital will remain as before, from 1.30pm to 3.30pm and 6.30pm to 8.30pm with visiting times for partners from 9.00am to 9.00pm.

To coincide with the new extended visiting times, UL Hospitals has developed new Visitor Information Leaflets for each site, providing details on parking, visiting times, refreshments and general useful information when visiting. These leaflets, which have been approved by the National Adult Literacy Agency, will be freely available around all UL Hospital sites and to download from www.ulh.ie.

UL Hospitals continues to develop services to improve the visitor experience across the group. The Patient Advocacy Liaison Service (PALS) is available at UHL, Ennis and Nenagh and will be launched in Croom and the University Maternity Hospital Limerick in the coming months. PALS volunteers work to improve the experience of patients and the public who come to the hospital by providing guidance and support.

If you are interested in volunteering for PALS, please contact Catherine Hand on 061-482531 or email catherinel.hand@hse.ie.

UL Hospitals also encourages feedback from visitors and they can do this by completing a 'Your Service Your Say' form located on all wards and public areas. Visitors can also email feedback to yoursay.ulhospitals@hse.ie.
