AGM: C.L.G. Cora Chaitlín will be holding its Annual General Meeting on Nov 27th. This is where the entire membership of the club comes together for a meeting in which a report of the year gone by is given and officers are elected to the various positions in the club. The AGM is the best platform for club members to raise issues and have their say. If you think you would make a difference on the Club Executive you will need to be nominated for a position. Members will receive nomination forms and more details in the coming days.

The Back to Education Initiative , Further Education and Training Centre, Clonroad Campus, Clonroad Business Park, Ennis, Co. Clare. are currently recruiting for learners interested in courses in the catering area. This QQI Level 3 programme offers learners the opportunity to develop important kitchen skills including basic cookery skills and experience what it is like to work in a busy kitchen. The course also creates a learning environment, in which the emphasis is on the practical application of the skills necessary, to work in the dynamic and ever-changing sectors of food. Components include culinary operations, nutrition for catering, information technology and career preparation. Learners will also have the opportunity to undertake the EHOA Primary Course in food safety as well as Manual Handling. This programme will run on Monday's 2.00 pm – 4.30 pm and Wednesday's 11.30am – 05.00 pm commencing on 9th November. . Killaloe Diocese Justice and Peace Committee is attempting to make people more familiar with Catholic Social Teaching. Here is a quote which we may find helpful, describing what Catholic Social Teaching is. Pope John XXIII wrote this in 1961. "It is not enough merely to formulate a social doctrine. It must be translated into reality. And this is particularly true of the Church's social doctrine, the light of which is Truth, Justice its objective, and Love its driving force. Mater et Magistra – "Mother and Teacher" (1961) Something to reflect on as we end the Year of Mercy.

Holy Year of Mercy: A liturgy to mark the end of the Holy Year of Mercy will take place in the Cathedral, Ennis on Sunday, 20 November at 3.30pm. Bishop Fintan Monahan will preside and the reflection will be given by Fr Liam Lawton. All welcome.
