Fr. Pat Murnane R.I.P.

The death has occurred in South Florida of Fr. Pat Murnane a native of Stonehall. Born in 1934, Fr Pat was ordained in 1960 and became one of dozens of Irish priests who went to Florida in the middle of the last century. He served at St. Juliana in West Palm Beach (1960-63), St. Coleman in Pompano Beach (1963-66), and St. Anthony in Fort Lauderdale (1966-68) before being appointed administrator of St. Helen in Fort Lauderdale (1968-78) and then pastor (1978-86). He was named pastor of Nativity parish in Hollywood in April 1986. His work within the archdiocese of Miami over half a century was immense. He was loved and treasured for his wit, generosity and kindness. Father Pat, who served as pastor of Nativity for 29 years, died Oct. 4 at the age of 85, after 59 years in the priesthood.

Fr. Pat's remains will return home to his native parish this week. Requiem Mass will be celebrated in Newmarket church this Thursday, October 17th at 3.00pm. He will be laid to rest afterwards in Lemenagh cemetery. Leaba i measc na Naoimh uile go raibh aige!

GAA NEWS

Well done to our U13 Hurlers who won the B championship last weekend.

At the moment we are in the process of renovating our clubhouse. Part of the new design will allow us to display many old photos and artefacts from the club's history. Also underway is the writing of a comprehensive club history. Which is where YOU come in.

Do you have any souvenirs from our hurling past? Photos, programs, hurleys, sliothars, jerseys, medals, trophies, etc, etc. If so, we would love the opportunity to have a look and perhaps make digital copies for posterity. Text Colm 0868035319.
