GAA NEWS

Lotto: Another week, several hopes dashed as the wait to find a jackpot winner goes on. In the €10,000 draw 6, 8, 14 & 18 were the needed numbers while to win €9,050 you needed 15, 21, 26 & 31. €40 winners; Mary Donnellan, John O'Loughlin, Pat Corry, Ann McSherry & John O'Loughlin. Monday's draw is at The Bellsfort Inn where €10,000 & €9200 will be on offer.

Quarter-Final Tickets: Clare face a stiff test against Tipperary in the quarter-final of the All-Ireland SHC on Saturday week in what will be the grand reopening of Pairc Uí Chaoimh. Members interested in sourcing tickets for the clash from CLG Cora Chaitlín must contact Chairperson Freddy McInerney (086 224 5157) or Secretary Concepta O'Connor (0868253097) by Saturday evening. All personnel who got their match tickets through the club before the deadline in Clare's last game received their tickets on time. After a disappointing outcome in the Munster Final at the weekend it would be easy to throw in the towel, we're confident our players won't do that and it's pivotal that our supporters travel to Cork and give them their backing, for the endless hours they devote to their county your support is the least they deserve. Please support your county, purchase a ticket via the club and let's do our best to topple Tipp!

16s Commence Championship: On Tuesday our U16s got their championship off the ground, while it looked like they were on course to beat Kilmaley they ended up losing by a point. They're back on the horse on Sunday morning when they travel to Clarecastle for a 12pm throw-in. Best of luck to all involved, your support would be very much appreciated for this promising panel.

Adult Hurling: It's the moment we've all been waiting for and it takes place in Tulla at 7pm on Saturday as John Hannon's Junior B's set foot on the road to redemption. After losing last year's championship final, they start from scratch when they play Scariff at Dr Daly Park. Our Seniors need a win on Sunday when they welcome O'Callaghans Mills to the village with 11:30 the start time. Meanwhile our Intermediates have qualified for a League semi-final and will be continuing their preparations. Best wishes to all panels.
