Congratulations to Frances Bailey on the success of her recent exhibition of art titled 'Life of my Being' held in The Health and Wellness Centre at Carrigoran House Newmarket-on-Fergus. The exhibition which was launched by Bishop Emeritus Willie Walsh on 5th of August was in aid of the work of Pieta House for Suicide Prevention. Frances would like to thank all who supported her by purchasing paintings and making donations during the event. She especially would like to thank management of Carrigoran House for permission to use the premises during their summer break, the venue could not be surpassed for space, suitability and ambience. In total €3,550.00 has been collected for this very worthy cause. A cheque in this amount has been presented to Mr. Tom McEvoy, Clare representative of Pieta House.

Tom McEvoy, Corporate Funding & Advocacy Darkness into Light Executive, on behalf of Pieta House wishes to sincerely thank Frances for her kind donation. We are grateful to receive these funds which will help to continue our Freely accessible, one to one therapeutic counselling service to those who are in suicide ideation, self-harming or those who have been bereaved to suicide. Pieta House closest main centre for all our services to those living in County Clare is Pieta Mid-West, Mungret, Co. Limerick, for which the funds donated will be ring-fenced. We are glad to let you know we are now offering suicide and self-harm intervention counselling and suicide bereavement support outreach services from our Limerick centre in Chapel Lane, Ennis. Thank-you Frances on behalf of our clients for helping Pieta House to make this opportunity a reality. To contact Pieta House services, Free Phone 1800-247247 or Text Help to 51444. Or simply contact Limerick centre on 061- 484444. Go to www.pieta.ie for further information
