Something to think and pray about this week

Taking the cross Wednesday is the start of LENT, the season that leads to our commemoration of the Passion and Resurrection of Jesus. He said, "Take up your Cross." (Mk 8:34, Lk 9:23)

It is not something you go looking for in faraway places. Sooner or later the Lord hands us a cross, and our job is to recognise it. For each of us there are events that made a difference. Our sorrowful mysteries will be different from each of us. Maybe it was a meeting with a friend, a lover or an enemy. Maybe it was sickness, or a triumph. We try to see our life through the eyes of faith, with a confidence that God in His Providence can draw good out of the most awful and unwelcome happenings.
