The Missions Handbook 2014

A Celebration of 1500 years

For over 1500 years, Ireland's missionaries have inspired so many to witness and share their faith and the Gospel. They have brought the hope of the Gospel to people where there is turmoil, poverty, and uncertainty.

We at Guerin Media will be celebrating this milestone in Irelands Missionary History by producing for the first time a dedicated Handbook which will be distributed to all missionaries free of charge in March 2014. We will also distribute copies to all of the nearly 90 different congregations and societies as well as lay organisations who send men and women to spread the news. To all parishes and religion teachers in all schools.

The purpose of the handbook is to keep supporters and friends of the 1700 Irish born missionaries working in 84 countries up to date with their amazing work and to promote awareness of the importance of mission. Missionaries will be invited to contribute articles on their work and lives abroad.

We will have first person accounts of overseas communities being changed by Gospel values.

We will also seek to highlight the work of the church in training future priests and nuns in dioceses.

We will be contacting you soon to see if you can contribute with; information, pictures, articles, news that can help make this a valuable publication for Irelands Missions.

Although this book will be produced and distributed FREE of charge, if you are in a position to support our endeavours by advertising your company, services or message within this publication, please contact us.

God Hear My Prayer

God in heaven hear my prayer,
keep me in thy loving care.

Be my guide in all I do,
Bless all those who love me too.

Amen.

Migrant & Refugee Sunday 19th January 2014

'Towards a Better World' is the theme chosen by Pope Francis for Migrant Sunday.

Migrants, despite the obstacles on their paths,
are people of great hope and great courage.

We remember them all in prayer to-day.
