Ordination to Diaconate: Michael Geraghty who is a student for the priesthood of the Killaloe Diocese will be ordained to the Diaconate on Sunday 1st June in St Patricks College Maynooth by Cardinal Sean Brady. Michael is a native of Birr in Co. Offaly. He is one of 15 students who will be ordained to the diaconate from different dioceses around Ireland. We ask you to pray for Michael and for all 15 students. With ordination to the Diaconate Michael enters the last year of his studies and formation and God willing will be ordained to the Priesthood for service in the Killaloe Diocese in the summer of 2015. We invite you to pray for an increase in Vocations to priestly and religious life.

Friday 6th June is the first Friday in the month and there will be
Exposition after evening mass

Saturday 7th June being the first Saturday of the month the Rosary will be recited from 2 to 3pm during the Fatima Hour.

Sunflower Days for Hospice Care

Since the early eighties Cahercalla Hospice has been caring for Clare's terminally ill patients free of charge. Hospice Sunflower Days take place throughout County Clare on Thursday 5th, Friday 6th and Saturday 7th June. Please buy a Sunflower and support the vital work our local Hospice Service provides for terminally ill patients and their families. Volunteers are also needed, so if you would like to get involved please contact 065 6821966 for details. All funds raised locally stay locally. Thank You

Tidy Towns News

The Tidy Towns have been allocated a grant under Public Area Enhancement Scheme for the Fair Green Area. An information meeting will held on Tuesday 3rd June in the Community Centre 20.00. All welcome to attend.

Judging in the National Tidy Towns Competition 2014 is fast approaching and having the village looking at its best for 01 June and for the summer months is evident from the recent work by volunteers in the painting of buildings, planting of containers with flowers on the approach roads and the many floral baskets and window boxes on display.

The Committee are encouraging residents and businesses to play their part by keeping their own areas neat and tidy. There has been a gain in adjudication points each year and with your assistance we hope to continue the trend for 2014!

Clare Local Development Company are now offering Computer courses in the Newmarket on Fergus Area. Courses focus on internet use with a social media focus: Skype, e-mail, Facebook. Courses entail seven sessions, and will be held locally in Newmarket on Fergus.

Irelands Best Scone:

Café Fergus has been nominated in the Top Ten finalists of Irelands Best Scone 2014. The annual competition run by Goodall's sees nominations from the public being whittled down to a final list of ten. This year there are three Co. Clare eateries nominated which is a great achievement as Clare earns a reputation for being one of the foodie counties of Ireland. The scone continues to win out as a favourite breakfast and tea-time treat and Café Fergus pride themselves on their freshly baked scones which range in variety from the humble Irish brown scone to the ever popular pear and almond! The voting comprises 50% public opinion and the rest from a select group of top judges including Paul Kelly from the Merrion Hotel and The Great Irish Bake Off. Public voting goes live on Monday 26th May and continues until Friday 6th June. Keep updated on Twitter @CafeFergus #bestscone or Facebook.com/CafeFergus tag Goodall's of Ireland. voting is through www.goodalls.ie
