Irish Catholic Bishops have called for a time of prayer and action for unborn life. Bishops said, "Human laws do not determine what is good or true. What was true in advance of the legalisation for abortion in the Republic of Ireland, or its proposed imposition in Northern Ireland, remains true to-day. Every human life is a gift and a blessing and ought not be destroyed or disposed of at will."

Prayer resources are available to download from the website of the Bishops' Council for Life on www.councilforlife.ie.

Mission Sunday

This weekend, every Parish in the World will come together in prayer and generosity in support of the Missions. This year, World Mission Sunday is being celebrated this Sunday. In Ireland, World Mission Sunday is managed by World Missions Ireland. World Missions Ireland is the Church's official charity for overseas mission. It is part of a worldwide network of 120 offices, under the co-ordination of the Pontifical Mission Societies in Rome. Together, they are responsible for the global coordination of World Mission Sunday, which helps support over one thousand struggling mission dioceses in 157 countries. World Missions Ireland is the only Catholic charity which supports the 40% of the Universal Church that is too new, young or poor to support itself. It follows Christ's example by helping everyone in need, regardless of background or belief. Through World Mission Sunday, and your generosity, World Missions Ireland helps to:

1. Build the Church and empower local people to form and sustain communities of faith.
2. Train future priests, sisters and catechists.
3. Support vulnerable children through educational, medical, welfare and formation programmes.
4. Educate the faithful about mission.

Thank you for your generosity and kindness to Missionaries.

Sacristans wish to thank everyone who contributed to the Autumn Collection
