The Diocese has recently been contacted by Archbishop Djalwana Laurent Lompo, Archbishop of Niamey in Niger in Central Africa. He wishes to thank us for the gift of €4,500 which his Diocese received as a gift from the priests of the Diocese of Killaloe. This gift was in fact the gift that we gave Bishop Kieran at his farewell function in the Bunratty Castle Hotel and which he donated to the Diocese of Niamey in our name. The Diocese of Niamey has suffered greatly in recent times due to the attacks of Boko Haram and many of their churches have been burnt down. The gift will be of great help to them as they rebuild their Diocese
