'Leading Learning, Changing lives' Project

Staff from Scoil na Maighdine Mhuire, Newmarket on Fergus will travel to Portugal as part of a Europe wide project sharing best practice in teacher education.

Erasmus+ aims to modernise and improve the quality of teaching, training and youth work across Europe, and to support the development, transfer and implementation of innovative practices. Scoil na Maighdine Mhuire is involved in the programme through Clare Education Centre and the Scoil na Maighdine Mhuire's project entitled 'Leading learning, Changing lives' seeks to promote STEM subjects (Science, technology, Engineering and Mathematics) at primary level. Part of the project sees four staff travel to Portugal at the end September to a conference of teachers from across Europe sharing best practice. Other countries attending will be Norway, Denmark, Greece, Portugal as well as Ireland. The project is fully funded by Léargas.
