“How beautiful are the feet...of those who bring good news”

Oh, how all of us would agree with these words of Paul, who walked great distances bringing the joyous news of the gospel to the ancient world. And ‘good news’ can be such a lift in our lives, but does it arrive often enough?

Paul’s story, part two, of his remarkable life’s work and the legacy of his writings, is the topic of the talk in the Upper Room in Newmarket Church, @ 7.00pm on Thursday next 2nd October. Paul’s tireless preoccupation with preaching the love of the Risen Christ is a key element in exploring the richness of our Christian heritage and enhancing our faith.

Matt Talbot Novena 2014 - Shannon : The annual Novena praying for all suffering or sharing in the life of addictions, will begin for the 22nd year on this Tuesday September 30th at 7pm, in SS John & Paul Church, Shannon. Minor B County Hurling Champions

Our Minor Hurlers did us proud last Friday evening when they beat O'Callaghan's Mills 3-19 to 2-13 in the Minor B hurling final and collected the Kay Marren Cup. Kay Marren was a fantastic hardworking club man and I'm sure he was smiling down on this bunch of young men who showed many of the things Kay would have admired, great skill, hard work and a great sense of pride in his beloved club. Eoin presented the cup on behalf of the Marren Family overlooked by Club na nOg representative Joe Pender to the excellent and inspiring captain Paudie McMahon.

This particular bunch of players have had Manager Eddie Griffin involved with them since under 8's along with Derek Clancy, Pat Corry and the fantastic trainer Liam Clancy. All these mentors have led this group of lads to glory and as a club we are greatly appreciative.

Thanks also to the huge amount of loyal Newmarket supporters who came out to support the lads - they really appreciated it.

Intermediate League Final : Well done to our Intermediate Hurlers winning the League final 1-16 to 3-09 against Bodyke last Sunday in Tulla. The legendary captain Eoin "Smiley" McInerney thanked the management team of Kevin Halpin, Pat O'Leary, Enda Kelly and the stats man Colin Martin along with the entire panel.

Under 13's : Our under 13's hurlers also had a great win beating Inagh-Kilnamona 4-11 to 3-07. These lads are now in a semi-final and we wish them all the best

Under 6's blitz : There will be an Under 6's blitz v's Eire Og in Newmarket on this Sunday at 11am for all boys and girls. All participants are asked to have Hurlleys, helmets and boots. Parents are also asked to help out if possible

Golf Classic : Many thanks to all our sponsors and participants in our recent very successful Golf Classic, your support as always is very much appreciated. As this was our main fundraising event this year we are very thankful for the committee who did all the hard work, Brian Arthur, David Ryan, Colin Ryan, Tomas Ryan, Tom Gregan and Pat Keogh. Winners are as follows: 1st Declan O'Leary 52.8; 2nd Nicky Duggan 53; 3rd Padraig McGrath 54.5; 4th Mike Corry 55. 5th Dermot O'Hanlon 55.3, 6th Reales Butcher's (better back 9) 55.4; 7th Kieran McDermot 55.4; 8th John Torpey 55.5.
