The communities of Bunratty, Ennis and Westbury will represent County Clare in the 2019 IPB Pride of Place competition.

Three separate projects have been nominated by the Rural Development Directorate of Clare County Council to participate in annual all-island competition, which is run by Co-operation Ireland and aims to recognise and celebrate the vital contributions that communities make to society.

Bunratty Local Development Association has been nominated in the Community Tourism Initiative category. Formed five years ago, the Association's activities are focused on regenerating the heart of the village through restoration works, landscaping and maintaining the village to the highest possible standard. Among the projects undertaken to date By local volunteers is the restoration of monuments, planting, landscaping, two new heritage style bus shelters in village centre, using local skills and labour and a new gateway to the graveyard and old mediaeval church – which is the oldest building in Bunratty. Judging for Pride of Place 2019 takes place between June and August with winners, runners up and special award recipients receiving a trophy and a small monetary prize at an awards ceremony on 30th November in the Lyrath Estate Hotel, Kilkenny.

GAA News: Congratulations to our €40 Lotto Winners- Shaunel Nugent, Carmel Casey, Patrick Quinn, JJ McCormack, Mike O'Donoghue. Our Jackpots are now €10,000 and €1,600

Sunflower Day for Cahercalla

Sunflower is the Hospice emblem, the theme being that the Sun gives life and at Hospice we treasure life to the very end making the best of every moment. Last years Sunflower Day was a great success for Cahercalla Hospice with the people of County Clare donating generously in excess of €16,000 towards our fundraising.

Local volunteers are needed to man the stands selling the Sunflower emblem on Friday June 7th at Euro Spar and the Post Office. If you have an hour or two to spare and wish to give your time to this worthy cause please contact Mary on 065 6821966.

The Barnardos National Collection Day, kindly supported by Dell, takes place on Friday 13th September 2019. We need you on Friday 13th September 2019 to help with organised bag packs and on-street collections in communities across the country. This is a fun opportunity to take part in a very worthy cause. Not only will you be giving back to the community, you will also get the opportunity to meet people, make new friends, and establish new networks. By generously volunteering your time you'll be helping change lives and create brighter futures for some of the most vulnerable children across Ireland. Please contact us on (01) 7080418 or email buckets@barnardos.ie Thank you!

The most satisfying thing in life is to have been able to give a large part of one's self to others.
Pierre Teilhard de Chardin

To succeed in life, you need three things: a wishbone, a backbone and a funny bone.
Reba McEntire

I am blessed to have so many great things in my life - family, friends and God. All will be in my thoughts daily.
Lil' Kim

When I admire the wonders of a sunset or the beauty of the moon, my soul expands in the worship of the creator.
