Pray for the happy repose of the soul of

Jacqueline Reid, Ballycar
Mary Lynch, nee Conroy, late of Rathfolan

May they rest in peace.

A prayer for our Bishop Elect

Eternal God, Shepherd and Guide, may Fintan who will serve your Church
be a shepherd after your own heart,
who will walk in your ways and with loving care,
watch over your people.

May he be a leader of vision and a teacher of your truth.
So may your name be glorified and your Church built up through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GAA NEWS

Lotto: Neither of our Lotto Jackpots were won at Monday night's draw in The Pub. 3, 5, 29 & 33 were the numbers pulled out in the main jackpot worth €10,000 while 3, 6, 19 & 27 were the all-important numbers in the draw for €2,750. Eileen Murphy, Saoirse Reidy, Brian O'Mara, Tess Maguire & Amy Considine are €40 richer having been selected as this week's winners. The Sports Bar hosts our next draw where €10,000 and €2,900 will be on offer. Thanks for your continued support of our Lotto.

Juniors In County Final: Our Junior B Hurlers had a comfortable 3-15 1-05 win over Clooney/Quin to advance to the Junior B Championship Final. Standing in our way of claiming a County title are the men from Wolfe Tones. Sixmilebridge hosts the clash on Saturday October 1st. It will be a double header as Wolfe Tones and Parteen face off in a Clare Cup playoff, while two teams from the Shannon club will be in action at the one venue we are determined not to be outnumbered and so we are asking for our Blues to come out in force for this game.

Seniors Must Do Battle Again: There was no separating Newmarket and Kilmaley in the Relegation Final of the Clare SHC last weekend. Our lads did us proud putting in a very spirited performance. We had a massive Blues support on the day, young and old, male and female were behind the Blues and we will need an even bigger crowd to get behind the lads for the replay.

Semi-Final Looms For U13s: Well done to our U13 Hurlers who qualified for the last four of the B competition. A 4-12 1-05 win over Wolfe Tones sealed their place in the semi-finals.

Ballycar National School became the latest school in the country to be presented with the Healthy Ireland - 'Health Promoting Schools' Flag'. The Healthy Ireland-Health Promoting Schools' (HPS) Flag' is presented by the HSE to schools as an acknowledgement of their work in improving the health of their school communities. The Healthy Ireland-Health Promoting Schools programme supports schools to focus on health and well-being and involves all members of the school community. Students, staff, parents and guardians are consulted to identify priority health areas. Over a period of around 2 school years schools develop an action plan to address the health areas identified. Schools are guided to address their priority area under the following evidence based categories: environment (social and physical) curriculum, policies and partnerships. Schools work, at their own pace, supported by the HSE Health Promotion & Improvement Dept. In each school, a Healthy Ireland-Health Promoting Schools coordinator and Healthy Ireland-Health Promoting Schools team lead out on the progression of health and well-being and this work is supported by the school principal, board of management and wider school community. European research has shown many benefits of this type of whole school approach to health. Chief among these benefits are increased self-esteem, safer and cleaner school environments, lowered incidences of bullying, a positive approach to health issues, increased parent involvement and better student/teacher relationships to name a few.

In Ballycar National School some of the many health initiatives chosen to take on board in order to progress as a Healthy Ireland - Health Promoting School include: Health Promoting Schools Week, Watch Your Back with Wally, Active Morning Activities, The Lunchbox Challenge, Active Schools Week and exposure to a variety of different forms of movement eg. Tai Bo, Tai Chi, Hip-Hop, Aerobics.

Local Undertaker, Cyril Cusack, has reported that many families are opting for cremation when planning funerals. Cyril, has been a Funeral Director since late last year and has experience of all aspects of funeral requirements. Cyril has overseen cremations in Cork and Dublin. He points out that a crematorium planned for Shannon will save families from the Mid West having to travel long distances at times of great stress.

Cyril has reached an arrangement with the Community Centre Committee to use the old hall as a funeral home, when required.
