Fr. Peter McVerry has been working with vulnerable young people in Dublin for the last 40 years. During this time he has campaigned tirelessly for their rights. On Tuesday, October 6th he is coming to Ennis and will present a talk in the old chapel, upstairs in St. Flannans College beginning at 8p.m. The core subject of the talk will be Fr. Peter's image of justice in the Ireland of today.

All are welcome to attend what will surely be a fascinating discussion.

Matt Talbot Novena 2015 – Shannon – 23rd Year of the Novena

The nine week annual Novena praying for all suffering or sharing in the life of addictions, continues this Tuesday October 6th at 7pm, in SS John & Paul Church, Shannon. The Preacher for the second evening will be Rev. Ger Fitzgerald CC, The Cathedral, Ennis. The Novena can be viewed each week live on line at www.shannonparish.ie where petitions can also be sent to the special online petition form. Please spread the word! A warm welcome awaits all.

There is now a Facebook page dedicated to the Justice and Peace and Care of Creation Strand of the Pastoral Plan. Currently available on the page is the encyclical Laudato Si and also some key principals of Catholic Social Teaching. The Facebook page is available at this link: <https://www.facebook.com/KillaloeDioceseJusticeandPeace?fref=ts>

Or Alternatively you can just type Killaloe Diocese Justice and Peace Group into the Facebook search engine and it should come up.

In an effort to promote the Newmarket-on-Fergus Brass Band the Board of Directors of the Community Centre have offered the band practice facilities in the Community Centre. Tuition for beginners takes place on Tuesday evenings from 7.30pm. The members of the band have also established close links with the Ennis Brass Band and beginners classes are taking place in Ennis Community College on Thursdays at 7.30pm. We have a wide selection of instruments available, both brass and percussion and anybody interested in participating (beginners or experienced) should call to the community centre at 7.30pm on any Tuesday or contact Gerard Fahy on 086 3850372.

BUMBLEance is the world's first interactive children's ambulance and the most technologically advanced on the planet. It was launched on the 6th of September 2013. They rely on the generosity of the public to raise much needed funds. This ambulance takes seriously ill children from their homes to hospitals all over the country and home again. It also does angel trips which are the last trip terminally ill children will make. This ambulance makes these journeys a lot more comfortable on both child and parents as these special passengers can relax knowing that the specially trained paramedics on board keeping a watchful eye over them. For more details go to www.BUMBLEance.com.

October in the following locations: Ennis, Kilrush, Kilkee, Scarriff, Shannon, Killaloe and Ennistymon. Please show your support.

Trócaire is responding to the growing needs of extremely vulnerable refugees in partnership with Caritas Serbia and has allocated €50,000 so far to provide sleeping bags and raincoats, hygiene kits, health services and psychosocial support. Trócaire also works with partners in Syria, Iraq, South Sudan and Somalia, which are burdened by protracted conflicts and in Jordan and Lebanon, countries which are hosting 1.75 million Syrian refugees. Trócaire have an online petition seeking justice for the refugee crisis at the moment. The petition is available here: <http://www.trocaire.org/refugeecrisis>.
