BISHOP – ELECT OF KILLALOE

His Holiness Pope Francis has appointed Fr. Fintan Monaghan, (a priest of the Archdiocese of Tuam), as Bishop of Killaloe. The appointment was announced at 11.00am this morning at a press conference held in the Ennis Parish Pastoral Centre. Fr. Fintan Monaghan was born in Tullamore, Co Offaly, on 23 January 1967. His parents are Tom and Peg Monahan and he has one brother, Seán, and one sister, Caitríona, who is married to Dominic. From 1980-1996 the family lived in Carraroe, Co Galway where his father was principal teacher at Scoil Chuimsitheach Chiaráin, An Cheathrú Rua. In 1996 the family moved to Castlegar, Galway City, the native home of his mother.

Primary education was in Tullamore and secondary education was in Carraroe before studying for the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Tuam in Saint Patrick's College, Maynooth in 1984. In 1987 he completed a B.Sc. in NUI Maynooth, a B.D. in the Pontifical University in 1990, an S.T.L. in Biblical Theology in 1992 and a H.Dip. in Education in NUI Galway in 1993.

Ordination to the priesthood was in Séipéal Mhic Dara, An Cheathrú Rua on 16 June 1991 by Archbishop Joseph Cassidy. While studying for the H.Dip. in Education in Galway he was curate in An Tulach, Baile na hAbhann, Conamara from 1992-1993. From 1993-2006 he taught Science, Irish and Religion at the diocesan college, Saint Jarlath's College in Tuam, along with coaching basketball and hurling.

In 2006 Archbishop Michael Neary appointed him chaplain to Saint Jarlath's College and diocesan secretary. During that time he also worked in the area of communications, vocations promotion and served as editor of the Tuam Diocesan Magazine, New Dawn. In recent years he joined the Communications Council of the Irish Episcopal Conference.

Bishop-elect Monahan is a fluent Irish speaker and enjoys the outdoor life, hill walking, jogging, cycling, swimming and gardening.

The Annual Milford Hospice Harvest Fair will take place on the grounds of the University of Limerick, which is just a ten minute walk from Milford Hospice, on Sunday the 14th of August 2016.

The Milford Hospice Harvest Fair is one of the largest single fundraising events of the year for the Hospice. The event itself encompasses all that is good about a family fun day with perennial favourites such as books, toys, fancy goods stalls, wheel of fortune, cake and plant sales, vintage car display, children's entertainment area and the bottle stall among the numerous attractions available on the day. Milford Hospice Harvest Fair is unique precisely because people give of their time, goods and services willingly and we really appreciate the continued support of the communities throughout the Mid-West Region. For further information email fundraising@milfordcc.ie, alternatively you can contact the Fundraising Team on + 353 61 485859/484860

GAA Lotto: Our Lotto Jackpot now stands at €9950 after Monday's draw to the value of €9800 wasn't won. 2, 3, 3 & 24 were the numbers drawn at O'Neills with Kay Commame, Brian Enright, Liza Kilmartin, Dolores Quinn and Derek Clancy winning the €40 prizes. The Bellsfort Inn is the venue for this week's draw.

Poc Fada Champion: Comghairdeas to James McNerney on winning the All-Ireland Senior Poc Fada Championships last weekend. James ended Brendan Cummins' hopes of winning six titles in a row and became the first Clareman since Davy Fitzgerald to win the title. It is a superb achievement and all involved in the club congratulate James on doing us proud on a national stage.

Club Academy: Our first ever Club Academy begins this Monday for boys and girls aged 13-18. It takes place from August 8th - 10th beginning at 10am each day and concludes at 2pm. Register early to get a discount price, if you sign up before July 31st it will cost you €30. After that date the fee will be €35. All participants will receive a t-shirt during the Academy. Those in attendance will get to avail of specialist coaching with sessions focusing on goalkeeping, free-taking, sidelines and much more. Some of our top coaches and players will be involved for the duration of three days. We are confident by enrolling in the Academy, boys and girls will bring their game to the next level. Contact Carol O'Leary (0860797548) to register.

Club Championship: The next round of games in the Clare SHC & Clare IHC take place on the weekend of August 20/21. Our Intermediates play Tubber while our Senior Hurlers will face off against Ballyea. U16 & Minor are in full swing, check our Facebook & Twitter pages for all the latest club fixtures and results.
