U14 Hurling:

After an exciting Championship & Féile campaign, the season is now over for our U14 Hurlers. Although no silverware was obtained, there is plenty of ability within the side so there is reason to be quiet optimistic. Lessons were learned by all involved during the year and this will aid our young hurlers in their future development. C.L.G. Cora Chaitlín wishes to thank John Guilfoyle and his management team of Pádraig Crimmins, Ken Power, John O'Looney and David Barrett for their commitment, the players for their efforts and the parents for their support. We look forward to seeing these hurlers lining out for the Blues for many more years to come.
