Drumline Cemetery
Mass this Tuesday
June 20th at 7.30pm.
All are welcome!

Welcome to Bishop Fintan.

This weekend Bishop Fintan Monahan comes to spend time in our midst to visit, to listen and to pray with us. It is an opportunity for him to get acquainted with the geography of the parish and the life of the community. He has had a busy schedule since his arrival in the diocese and it is a pleasure to have him break the bread of the Eucharist with us as community. We extend a very warm welcome to Bishop Fintan and continue to pray for him as he settles into his role as shepherd in the diocese of Killaloe.

Blessed indeed is the man who hears many gentle voices call him Father.

Men's shed will open on Thursday 22nd June at 3pm in Carrigoran. Great work has been done by a number of willing workers.

It is hoped people will help out financially to offset the cost of getting this project up and going.

Men's Sheds are very prominent all over the country. They are non-commercial organisations. Their primary activity is the provision of a safe, friendly environment where the men are able to gather and/or work on meaningful projects at their own pace while enjoying good company. The primary objective being to advance the health and well being of the participating men.

If you are interested come along and see the 'Shed' on June 22nd
