Dawn Mass

We will gather on Easter Sunday morning at 5.30 am to celebrate the Resurrection and break the Bread of the Eucharist together at Fenloe cemetery. The new day should begin to break in on our darkness at about 6.00 am. By assembling in this sacred place in our parish we will unite our voices with those of our departed loved ones in proclaiming Resurrection and welcoming Christ our light who calls us out of darkness into his own marvellous light.

Recent Deaths

Ceremony for Divine Mercy Sunday commencing at 2.00 p.m. at Ennis Cathedral on 12th April. The Feast of Divine Mercy is a public feast day formally established by St. John Paul 2 in May 2000. The Divine Mercy Devotion is inspired by the experiences and writings of a Polish nun Sister Faustina who died at 33 years of age in 1938 and was canonised in April 2000. It embraces priests, religious and laity united in their commitment to live mercy in relating to their brothers and sisters, to make the mystery of Divine Mercy known, and to invoke God's mercy for sinners

Handing on the Faith Today—A course for Parishioners
7th – 11th September 2015

During these days in the city of the apostles Peter and Paul, participants will be afforded an opportunity to reflect on the vital work of handing on the faith. The five days include a series of talks, liturgies and guided visits to significant Churches and Basilicas in Rome, a day of spiritual recollection and reflection, a visit to Castelgandolfo and Subiaco as well as an opportunity to attend a General Audience with Pope Francis. Presentations will be given by the following: Msgr. Ciarán O'Carroll, Pontifical Irish College, Rome will visit the Basilica of St. Peter's, the Basilica of St. John Lateran and the Basilica of St. Peter in Chains, focusing on the deposit of faith which is at the heart of the Catholic Church.

Ms. Maura Garrihy, Director of Youth Ministry, Galway Diocese, will focus on how to deepen and support the faith of young people.

Mrs. Catherine Wiley, founder of the Catholic Grandparents Association, will focus on her experience of grandparents in supporting the life of faith within the family.

Fr. Tom Norris, Pontifical Irish College, Rome will lead a day of reflection.

Fr. George Hayes, Pontifical Irish College, Rome will look at the use of art and beauty as a support in handing on faith.

Fr. Hugh Clifford, Pontifical Irish College, Rome will offer insights into the formation work that goes on at the Pontifical Irish College and its connection with the handing on of the faith.

The cost of the course is €750. Places are limited. A deposit of €300 is required to secure a place. Travel arrangements to Rome are the responsibility of participants but airport transfers to the College are included in the price. Rooms are en-suite with meals half board and with an opening and closing dinner. Those who wish to arrive early or remain following the conclusion of the course are welcome to do so, subject to the availability of rooms. If you wish to reserve a place, please telephone the Pontifical Irish College on the main office number at 00 39 06 772 631 or email ufficio@irishcollege.org -Pontifical Irish College, Rome www.irishcollege.org
