Prayer for Bishop-Elect Ger Nash

God, eternal shepherd,
You tend your Church in many ways and rule us with love.
You have chosen your servant, Ger to be shepherd of your flock in the Diocese of Ferns.
Give him a spirit of courage and right judgment,
a spirit of knowledge and love.
By governing with fidelity those entrusted to his care,
may he build your Church as a sign of salvation for the world.
We ask this prayer, through Christ, our Lord. Amen

Plans are very well advanced for our eighth annual Palliative Care Week, which takes place 12-18 September 2021.

Our theme this year ‘Palliative Care: It’s more than you think’ reflects AIIHPC’s commitment to raising awareness of the positive impact that palliative care has on the lives of people with life-limiting illnesses and their families; allowing them to live their lives as fully as they can. It also recognises the role of health and social care professionals in providing palliative care support to people across the island of Ireland.

Launch Press Release

On Monday 9th August, a launch press release was issued to regional broadcast, online and print media across the island of Ireland. This is a call to action for people in communities to get involved in Palliative Care Week 12 to 18 September 2021. The press release was localised for each county. Read more on <https://aiihpc.org/people-across-the-island-of-ireland-are-encouraged-to-know-more-about-palliative-care/>
We have had a very positive response from local radio

Promotional Materials

We are delighted to have received all of the printed promotional materials for distribution and this year, we have a number of additional digital/social media resources available for you to use in the run up to and during Palliative Care Week 2021. The promotional materials can be viewed on <https://thepalliativehub.com/palliative-care-week-2021/campaign-resources/>

We would be happy to send you printed copies. Please indicate to my colleague Bernadette at bpirihi@aiihpc.org how many you would like and the postal address where they should be sent to.

Events

We know that some of you and your organisations are planning events and activities during Palliative Care Week. If your organisation is planning any events, report launches or other activities to coincide with Palliative Care Week, please let us know as we’d like to publicise activities taking place on The Palliative Hub.

Social media

We would be delighted if you could support media activity on social media using the #pallcareweek hashtag. We invite you to use the social media frame and/or post template <https://thepalliativehub.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/07/FRAME.pdf> be photographed with it and post it on your social media channels.

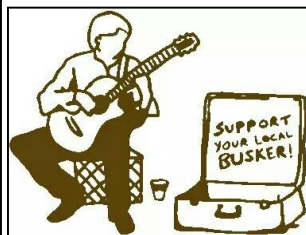

The Palliative Hub

All Palliative Care Week information, news, resources, including online resources such as designed materials which can be used on email, social media etc., can be accessed <https://thepalliativehub.com/palliative-care-week-2021/>

To find out more, to let us know about events (including online), or to obtain leaflets and/or posters, please contact Bernadette Pirihi, AIIHPC preferably via email bpirihi@aiihpc.org or by calling 00353 1 4912948

Please join us in promoting palliative care.

Are you interested in becoming a host carer?

Home Share Clare offer short respite breaks to adults and children with an intellectual disability in the county of Clare. The uniqueness of this service is that you the host carer can offer support to an individual in your own home affording the person supported the opportunity to make new friends outside of their family circle. Currently our hosts come from a wide range of backgrounds and can be single, married, older, younger, working or retired. No formal qualifications or experience is necessary and training will be provided. A payment is made to host carers for the service provided. If you would like to hear more about hosting and getting involved please email homeshareclare@bocsi.ie or phone 065 6849400

Interested in becoming a Samaritan volunteer?

Samaritans Ennis and Clare are currently seeking new volunteers for the Autumn 2021 training programme. Volunteers offer their time (approximately 3 to 4 hours a week) to help deliver a 24-hour emotional support service to callers from all walks of life. If you are tolerant, open-minded, and willing to help others please call 085 1763491 or email ennis.branchrecruitment@samaritans.org for further information.
