Men's Shed: Next Tuesday September 7th activities in the shed will resume after a long spell. We are delighted to re-open and hope to welcome new members. It is a very enjoyable pastime. The shed is open every Tuesday and Thursday from 10am to 2pm. Much of our work has been on display in Commans's shop windows over the summer months. Many items have been sold. We hope that new members will bring another element to the shed and the products produced there. Profits from sales go to local clubs and charities. This venture enriches many areas of community life, from locals making the products in our lovely well kitted out building at Carrigoran to the organizations that benefit from the profit of sales. Many thanks to everyone who supports the Men's Shed and it's endeavours. Feel free to drop out to check out the workshop and see if it might suit you. Tea, coffee and snacks are provided.
