Sacristans Autumn Collection will take place this weekend in all churches.

Sacristans are the unsung heroes of most churches: Although a sacristan's job duties vary by church, in general, this role serves as a coordinator for worship services, ensuring that linens are pressed and clean, that altar vessels are kept safe, that consumables like altar wine and altar bread are in adequate supply, and that the church as a whole is kept secure and in good repair. A word of thanks to all our Sacristans and their supporting team.

Weekly Church Collection: Thank you for your contributions and ongoing support to Church Collections. Last week the parish collection amounted to €1462.25

World Mission Sunday 2022

World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. It always falls on the second last Sunday in October, meaning this year it will be celebrated over the weekend of Sunday 23rd. World Mission Sunday collections take place in every single parish where the Church is present. This includes not only Ireland and Europe, but also in poorer parishes in developing countries. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, play their part in supporting each other. This is what makes it such a special celebration.
